CORAM;A.P.SHAH & D.Y.CHANDRACHUD JJ.
Dated l8.7.2005

P C:

. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

. The appeal is directed against the order passed by the learned single Judge in interlocutory proceedings. By the impugned order the learned single Judge has directed the labour court to decide the application for interim relief afresh within a period of six months. The learned counsel appearing for both parties submitted that instead of deciding the interlocutory application the labour court may be directed to decide the complaint itself within a time bound schedule.

Accordingly we direct the Labour Court to decide Complaint (ULP) No. 85 of 2004 as expeditiously and in any event within a period of six months from today. The order of the learned single Judge to stand modified to above extent. All contentions on merits are left open to the parties. Appeal stands disposed of.

. In view of the disposal of the main appeal no order on the civil application.
